The Artist

Trevor William Marais

Poetry, photography, sketching, Golfing, Darts, NFL, NHL, Tennis, Soccer and Family. My late Farther-in-law Charles Rambo(Chuck) used to say 'Your family is your pride even if you have to instill that pride into them', at 18 years old it did not sink in he would just move the newspaper down and look at me over the top of it and say "there is no point in me trying to give you any sort of wisdom right now because you are not ready yet, but I am going to say it anyway so that you will remember these things when I'm gone one day". Charles passed away when I was 38 and you know what? Every thing he told me came through loud and clear, today family is my Life 3 Grandchildren, 3 Daughters, lovely wife, A Sister, Mom Is gone, Dad is 92 and living on his own by himself in a senior residence, 2 Son-in Laws, and several cousins from the homeland and their children make up my life.

Born in Cape Town, South Africa 1956 and emigrated to Toronto, Canada 1967 it was the month of May when everything was brown, if you can imagine leaving a beautiful landscape with Mountains and Oceans versus coming through the clouds in May over Toronto and seeing this flat brown land, it looked like a farm! I can remember saying "what did Dad bring us to?". Once on the ground you quickly start to feel the freedom and what it is to belong to a first world Country versus Apartheid and 3rd world Cape Town South Africa.

It was not hard to fall in love with Ontario when the Spring and summer arrived, Fishing, Camping, Boating, swimming in lakes were and still are a wonderful gift from this Country. The Freedom that we found can only be understood by individuals that where affected by the harsh segregating rules of Apartheid and what sort of violent hateful culture it brought against us. Anyway, lets concentrate on the Beauty of Canada and the freedom it offered all its Citizens, its is difficult to explain but let's just say that it is a feeling that allows your creativity, individuality, intelligence and your future grow.

Mom died at 82 and Dad is now moving forward without her 62 years married, a difficult task I can only imagine, he is brave and has some bad days which is understandable but for the most part I am proud of him. Well!! What did Chuck say when I was 18? Amazing stuff isn't it? Bringing us to Canada was a great gift from my Dad and I will never forget, and I hope he does not regret.

Three beautiful girls and so far 3 Beautiful grand children fill up my life when the children arrive there is no time to work on any of my hobbies, it is time that they will consume from me and it is an honour to try and stimulate the artists that are in them, they are very stimulating in singing, painting and creating already, it is nice to see but you have to spend the energy and time with them to be effective you cant just sit there you have to be involved.

Grandchildren are much different than having your own because of the experience of seeing everyone both their parents and other relatives whether they have passed on or still here, the similarities are not only in physical appearances but in the behavioral traits. I don't think you have to look to close for these resemblances because it jogs your memory and they help you reunite with some good memories of your own childhood and gift you with many touching natural emotional moments which will only create new memories and smiles, a wonderful gift of life. I want to thank the girls for the gifts of grandchildren it has been a tremendous experience fertilizing my soul, it is a natural method of nature that provides us with maturing and becoming complete individuals.

For a man what is life without a beautiful wife they keep you honest because they in turn are, my wife is also very Brave, a Cancer survivor and is has achieved much, she has taken on many new goals and achieved them gaining a lot of new knowledge and confidence that comes with hard work and success. Learning to succeed in marriage is leaning that sacrifice, understanding, and never giving up on each other will one day give you great reward. Sharing time together as one makes us all better it completes you just like the gift of grandchildren your children present you. Gentlemen love and cherish every moment with your wife.

In my journey I open and closed chapters and closing some of those chapters are not easy, and closing chapters are not possible because there are lives that remain in both, and you need to keep the book open to remain happy.

In this book I will attempt to give you the uplifting feelings that could hopefully help you in all the scenarios that families endure both positive and negative through photography and poems I will attempt to show you how much we all have in common delving into our modern world and its influence on our culture as family in Canada. Please enjoy each picture and its own set of words.

The skies of Australia

*Oi, the skies of Australia are strong
To see our family strong and free
I once came to this land and the flight was long
But once on the land its beauty made me belong
I can't go wrong to want to belong
To a land with people so strong Rugby, Cricket, world Champions indeed
Academics is also a symbol of its breed
All the Qualities of life, to help people succeed Australia, Australia I wish you were near.*

Trevor William Marais

I see myself in a reflection

*In a dream full of fear
I see myself calm
In a dream full of hate
I see myself sad
In a dream full of violence
I see myself retaliating
In thought of debate and anger
I see myself quiet
In a dream with a gun held to my head
I saw myself relaxed
In a song with my eyes closed
I saw the artist pain
I close my eyes to see my past
I see myself in uncertainty
I close my eyes to see my future
I see myself in uncertainty
In my visions come my thoughts
In my thoughts my loved ones are near
In a dream I see their fears
I see myself crying*

Trevor William Marais

I was a man

*My first time here I was a man
I never seemed to have a plan
Loud and obnoxious was it for me
Behaving like a jackass set me free
Many enemies ran away from me Headfirst into everything I ran
And one day into a tree I did land
From this incident I never woke up
But I came back to the earth to taste the dust.*

Trevor William Marais

Innocent Minds

TJ

*Find the time
To free your mind
Then you will find
You can see how blind
You've been all this time
Spending the Time
With Children is fine
You will feel sublime
Because in their mind
It is Love that they find
In their hearts and mind
So, spend more time
The patience you must find
To be in their hearts all the time*

Trevor William Marais

Sitting down

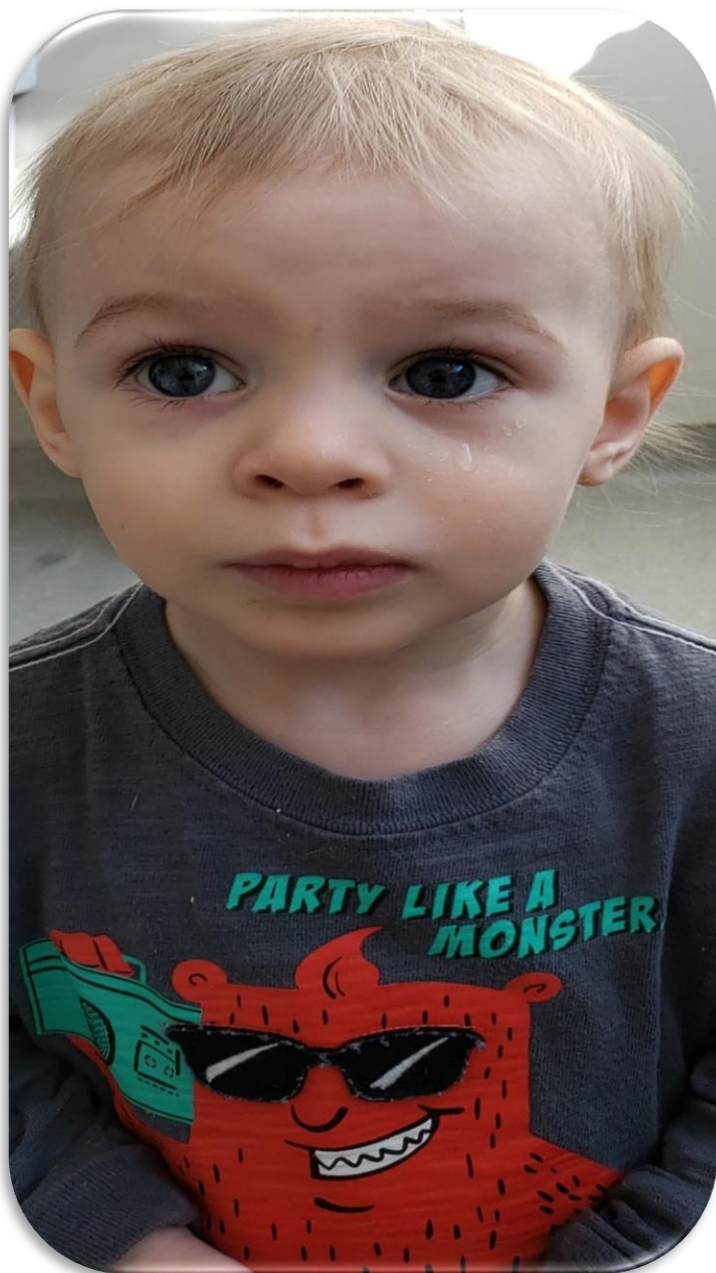

*Sitting down to touch the sky
To use my eye to feel its grace
Feeling the warm wind on my face
I started to feel nature's pace
A gift for all that was there
I'm sure we all came here to see Beauty that we all could share
Looking, for answers some of us
Sharing a picnic for most of us Sitting down for me was a must*

Trevor William Marais

*Addy my love
Goodness in us
Nature's law leads us to goodness
We have been birthed to do so
We would love to be good always
But there is a contrary law in us
Because we are bent towards rebellion
Therefore, the law must be there
To move us forward to goodness*

Trevor William Marais

Early Rising

Glowing gold in the trees

Always attracts the bees

Bringing golden food for the heart

A taste of gold what a way to start

But we know the birds will sing

And now it's time to leave their nest

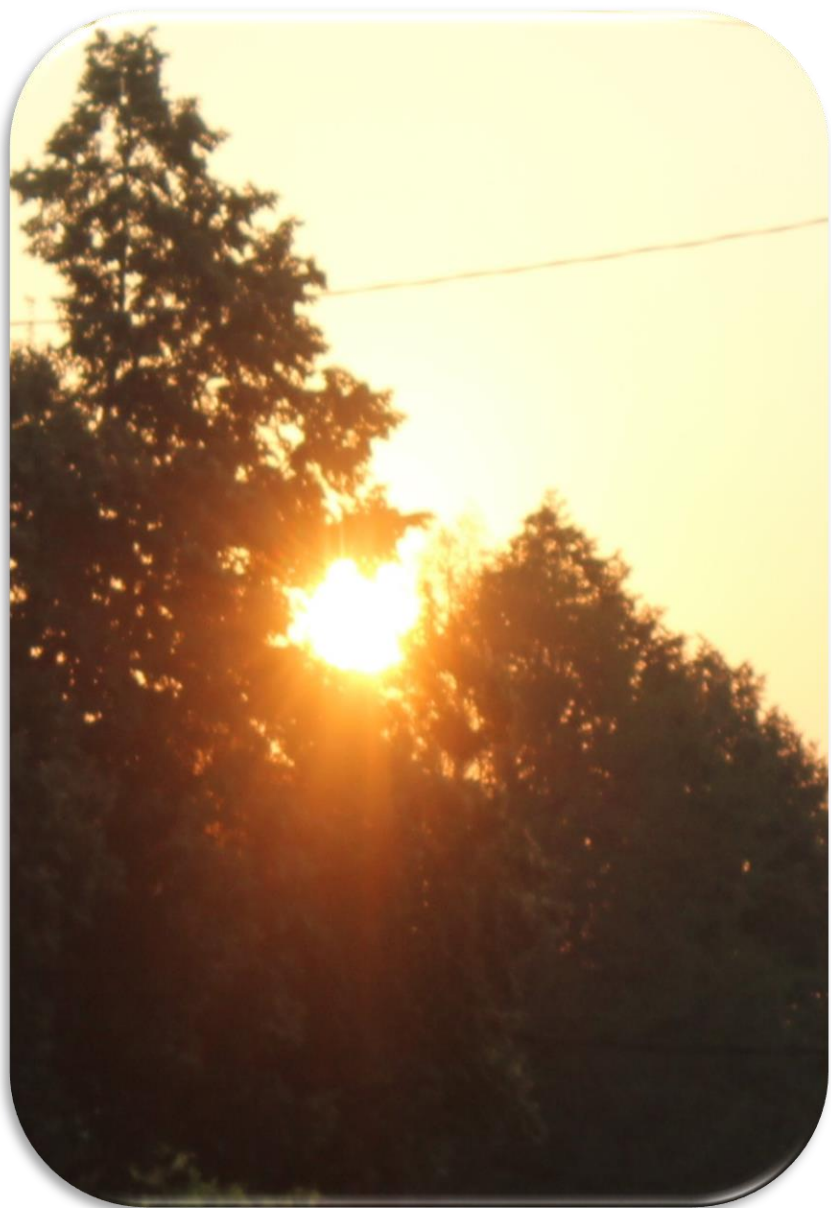

Early rising is the best

A step ahead while others rest

Rays of gold shining through

Signal the beginning of something new

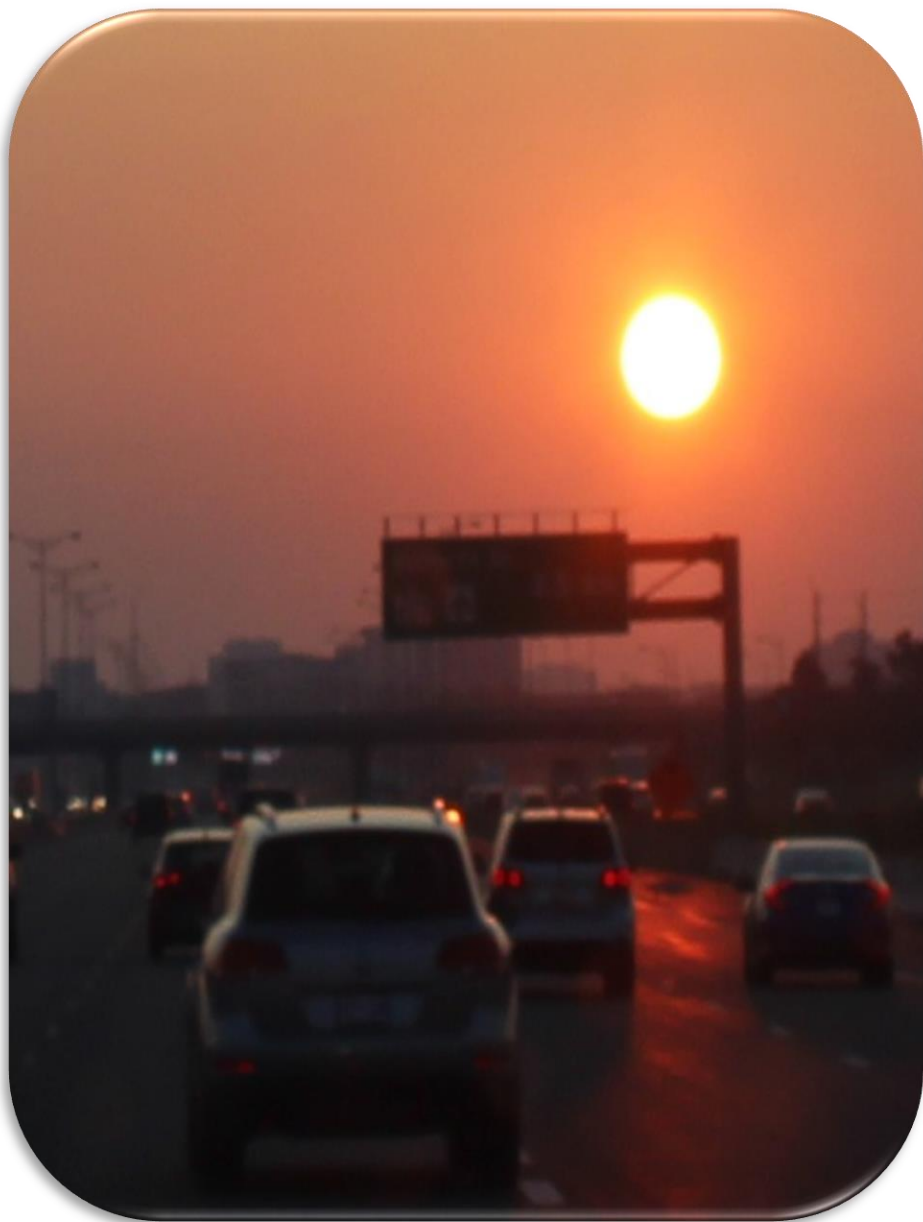

Trevor William Marais

High heat rising

*High heat glowing High Uv's burning
Bringing life for things that grow
Some need more, some need less
Some it causes death
Air conditioners need to rest
The ozone knows this the best Record amounts of fossil fuel burning
Alternative energy, let's start learning
In the north the ice is melting Causing floods and people dying
Is it possible to slow this down?
Ensure our children they will not drown*

Trevor William Marais

Absolute World

Architectural Flare

A Landmark globally to share

Curves beside a Square

Go inside of Marilyn if you dare

600 feet rising in the air

30,000 Square feet of amenities they share

Trevor William Marais

Peace and Tranquility

*It is inside of me
Why can't you see?
Something untrustworthy about me
Is that what you see?
Caring only to insult me
You make your accusations and flee
Not caring at all to find out what is me?
Scared to apologize that's what I see
I strive hard to please thee
Yet you fail to see
The Peace and Tranquility in me*

Trevor William Marais

Take your time

*In the glory of this morning
I found myself taking my time
Only to find this shine
It was trying to hide behind the mist
A powerful display of natures fist
I stopped to capture this power
Stare at her and you can't help but admire
This beast of nature, a rising ball of fire
Unlimited Kilowatts pure and clean Blinding power giving life to the flower
Please take your time to feel its power
One of its rewards
Is the scent of a flower*

Trevor William Marais

Pretty P

*She's as pretty as anyone could be
The love inside sets me free
Smiling and laughing, Oh what a scene
Her innocence sets the tone
With her around you'll never be alone
She questions everything that she sees Only because she's learning how to be Her journey of Life has just begun
Even though serious at times
Her goal is simply just to find more fun*

Trevor William Marais

Start over

*The Beginning
Soon There will be the end
When will it end?
We need to begin again
Be a Gracious host
And find a friend
Then bring this beginning to and end
And begin again
Because in the end he will return
But not only to begin again
But to put the torment to an end
And let us start all over again.*

Trevor William Marais.

Let's Talk about it.

We can talk about self pity and feel that within our own body we don't belong.

We can talk about a beautifully strong young athlete In South Africa who only yesterday said when asked. "in a Museum does that stuff belong"

We can talk about the ones who came all the way here to tell us "over there you do not belong"

We can talk about our spirit knowing where it came from begins to make us strong

We can talk about it longing for where we came from

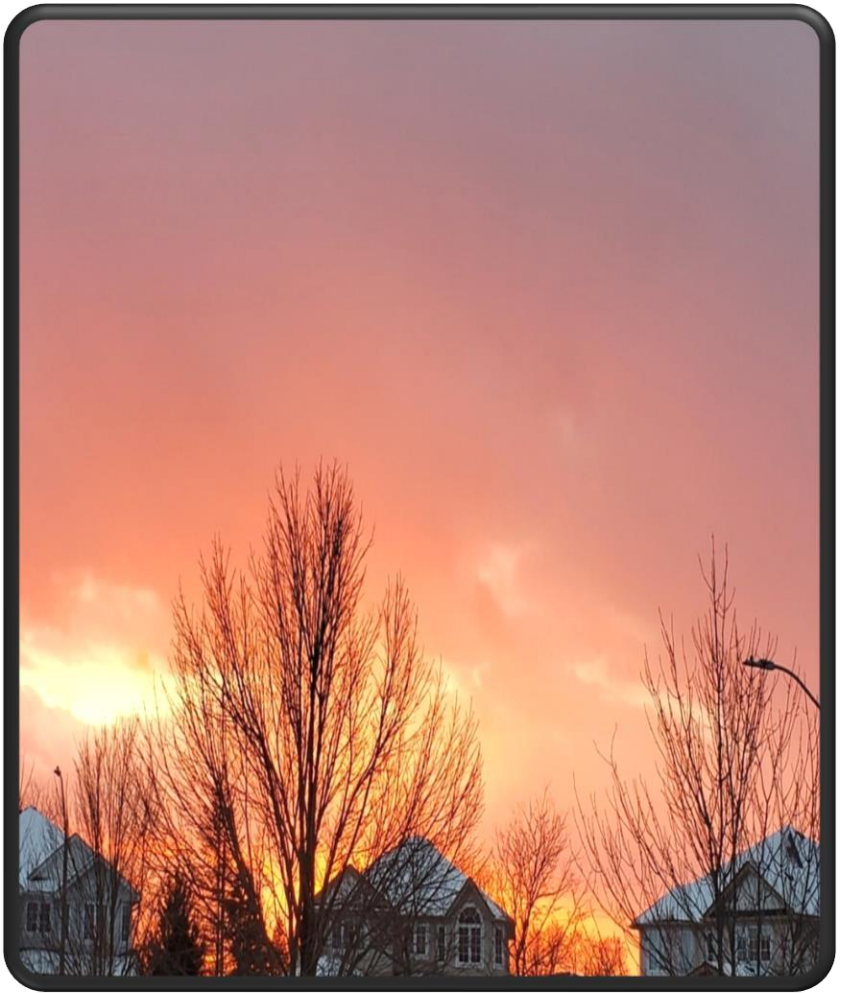

We can talk about our present life and cultivate the love needed to make us strong

We can talk about our children and tell them that seeing the beauty in love and that in any colour it will come from.

We can talk about anything then, don't you think?

We will talk about the fact that with love in your heart anywhere in this world you do belong

Trevor William Marais

Need a Plan

*Well good morning my good man
Today I wish I had a plan
I saw you there and crossed over the bridge
I found happiness, respect and peace surrounding you
I quickly realized that your love brought me here
To see the divinity within thee
I realize I have to take a stand
I won't cross that bridge again because I am safe with you.
Thank you my good man you have given me a plan*

Trevor William Marais

Hidden in the shadow

*Do not hide in the shadow of yourself Come out and take it... take your life. Bring your self with you please.
Come out and bring your childhood with you Come out and remember when you owned nothing
Come out and push the clouds away and make room for the sun to shine Come out and fight for that person hiding in their shadows.
Come out and show us who you really are All the time. Every minute. Every day!!!!
Come out Please,
Do not hide in the shadows.*

Trevor William Marais

I Love People

*I am a chief
I am a renegade
I am a lover
I love family
I am dangerous
I'd love to hate
I'd love to have revenge
I'd love to be the enemy
But I am love
I am energized
I am renewed
Don't define me
I am not my past
I am my present
I am my children
I am my blood
I'll bring the truth
I am concerned
I love you Define me now*

Trevor William Marais

One for us

Watch what you say

Watch what you do

Can you say what you do?

Can you do what you say?

The problem with saying is sometimes they will say nay!

The problem with doing is sometimes it Cannot be undone!

If you pray you can safely do and say

So, lets all pray that all our troubles go away

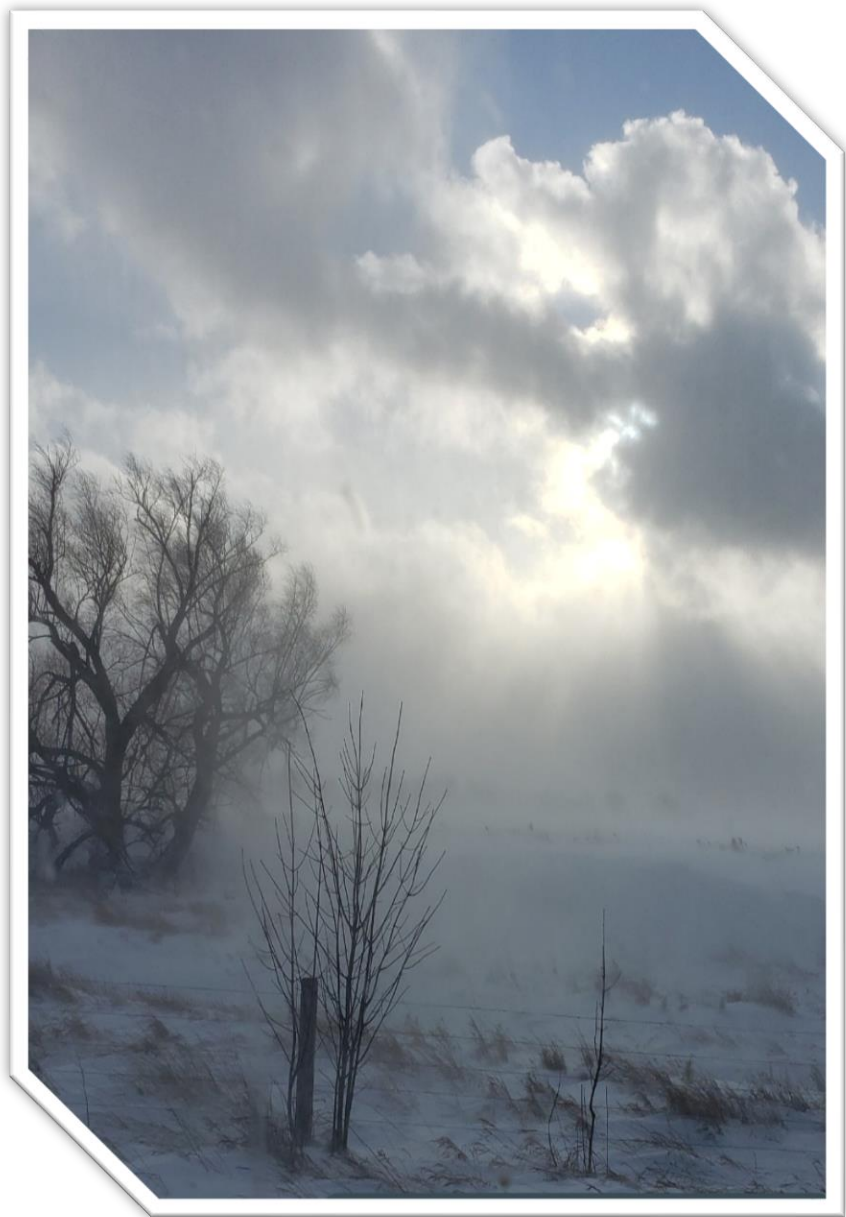

Trevor William Marais

We are One

*Some of us young
Some of us fun
Some of us are hurting
Some of us hurt
Some, are wondering why?
Some are helping
Some of us are guiding
Some of us are looking for the sun
All of us need the sun
So how can we have fun when some are hurting?
We are all one
Let's get it done*

Trevor William Marais

Furthermore

*Furthermore, my Goal is to make sense of this new Knowledge that I have found
And furthermore, I know it is to That! That I am bound Can we be so insightful and not realize what we have
If we do not share, we kill the power of this knowledge?
Do we grow if we stay silent and trust it?
Even if we shared would they care?
I cannot lose this feeling it will help me prepare To help those who care and...
I may need it as a light to guide me through my darkest moments and save me from despair*

Trevor William Marais

*The thing about trying to go through life unnoticeable can make you very noticeable, especially if you are needed.
Trevor William Marais*

As will Yours

The mortality of my soul, depends on my actions

Actions which can cause reactions to my environment, which at some point in my life I must control

Bringing holiness into my heart will depend on what I say or do

Holiness in the heartbeat of my flesh will determine and carry the power of my soul into immortality

So, make haste no time to waste because soon my time will come

As will yours

Trevor William Marais

The power of just one soul.

*It All started with fear
And ended in courage
Dying men in war seeing an angel appear
Selfless and courageous he fought off his fear.
When asked why are you here?
He replied because your here.
This angel knew the power of his courage.
This angel saved many lives
Eventually a bullet took him away from us
As usual evil would try to kill his fame.
But the men that he touched never forgot
So, they fought for his fame
And more angels appeared
Born in truth
Born in fear
Born then in courage
They fought and reclaimed
His honourable name
Great men were born that day
All in the room will never forget
The power of just one soul.*

Trevor William Marais

Let us Talk about it

We can talk about self pity and feel that within in our own body we do not belong

We can talk about a bright young athlete from South Africa, who only yesterday when asked said: "in a museum does that content belong"

We can talk about the ones who came all the way here to tell us "over there you do not belong"

We can talk about our spirit and knowing where we came from will make us strong

We can talk about longing where we came from

We can talk about our present life and cultivate the love needed to make us strong

We can talk about our children and show them the beauty of love and that in any colour it can come from

We can talk about anything then, don't you think?

We will however talk about the fact that with love in your heart anywhere on this earth you do belong

Trevor William Marais

No Answers

*Thinking about times gone by Always leaves you wondering why
Today I realize you were not that shy
Your love sees me reaching for the sky
Tomorrow I will cry and cry
Today will not allow my tear ducts to dry Things are much clearer, just no more why's
There are no answers
Trevor William Marais*

Intellectual feelings

*We see things in a way that intellectual behaviour is what we are all about
And yet we turn and disgrace ourselves
Then fool us that we are still the same
Yet we all know we will never be the same
The trick to trick yourself into believing you are happy with yourself
But we all know, you will always regret that evil broke your soul Just don't spend too much time pining, because even though broken a new life has begun
Just keep believing in that intellectual song*

Trevor William Marais

Deb, day to day without Andre

In the absence of your grace

She has a Lot to face

Agony because she is unable to touch your face

Tears are flowing at an enormous pace

Looking out the window, she wonders about her empty space

God will guide her with grace

"I'm taking it day by day" she said today and taking things at her own pace

She will be fine in time I see it on her face

Trevor William Maris

So

*So how did he come into his own at 64 is unknown
It probably set him free of facing burdens of fear alone
He now realizes, seeking peaceful solutions, needs to be condoned Pursuing goodness will physically free his soul Yesterday someone special reminded him to pay attention to the children and sending love will leave him at the throne
The Crown is, the power of peace and tranquility helps strengthen you to go forward alone*

Trevor William Maris

It is Gone

*When your heart burns from love that is gone, and believe me its gone You never believe that it will come back, trust me! Its gone
It does not always mean someone has to die, it could be disappointment Disappointment in life and people, knowing they do not care about what made our love
Disappointment knowing, they can break your heart and never look back Once this reality sets in, you will understand depression
It is a fear that we may become accustomed to this lifestyle and that disappointment will be a way of life
Soon we start to lose energy Somehow finding comfort in this will drive you deeper down, fearing not yourself, but everyone you love.
Now you wonder, is this love? is there no reward?
Now you realize you will always love, and love and you will always be disappointed,
Now you know, it is gone and believe me it is gone*

Trevor William Marais

So...what is uncertainty?

*It is certain that we will fall in love with something
And it is certain that heart will be broken
And therefore, certainly we must recover
And certainly, do not forget a thing
Certainly, many have overcome
To be certain recognize the power of your heart
And be certain you see the goodness in some ways
You will certainly gain knowledge
It will certainly set you apart*

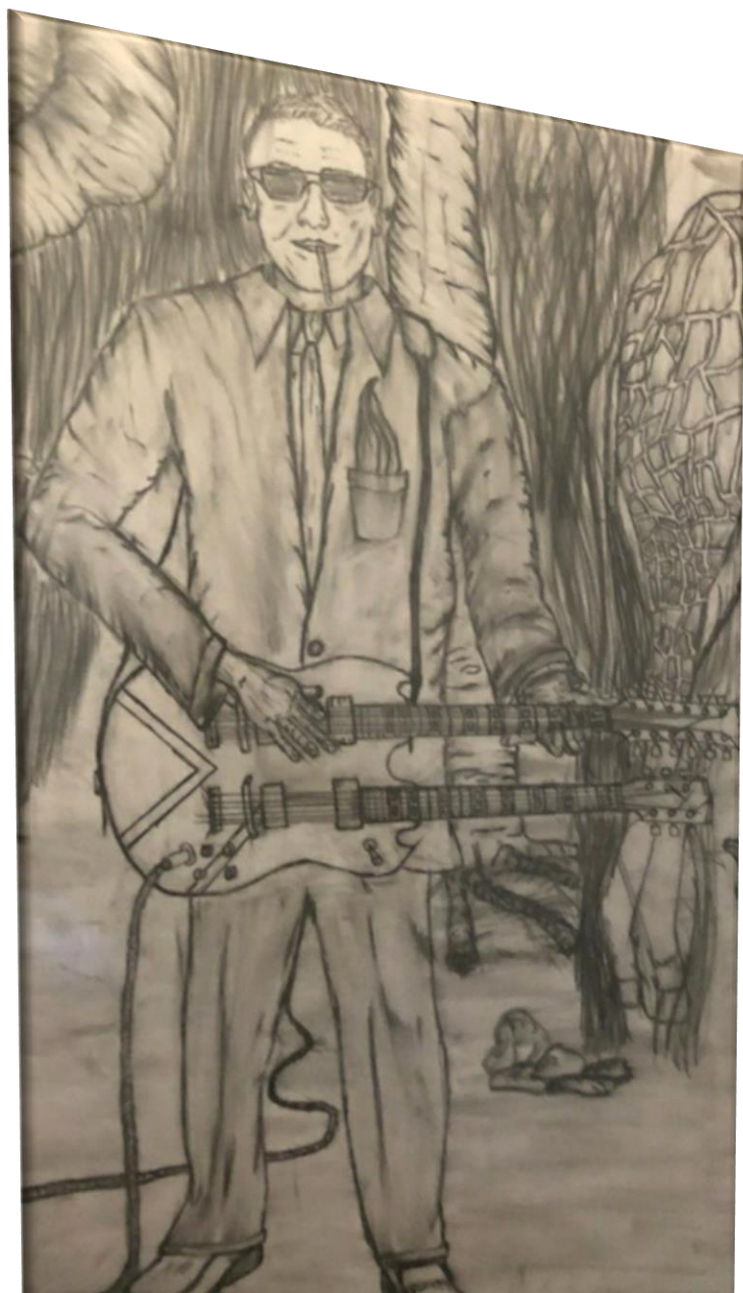

Trevor William Marais

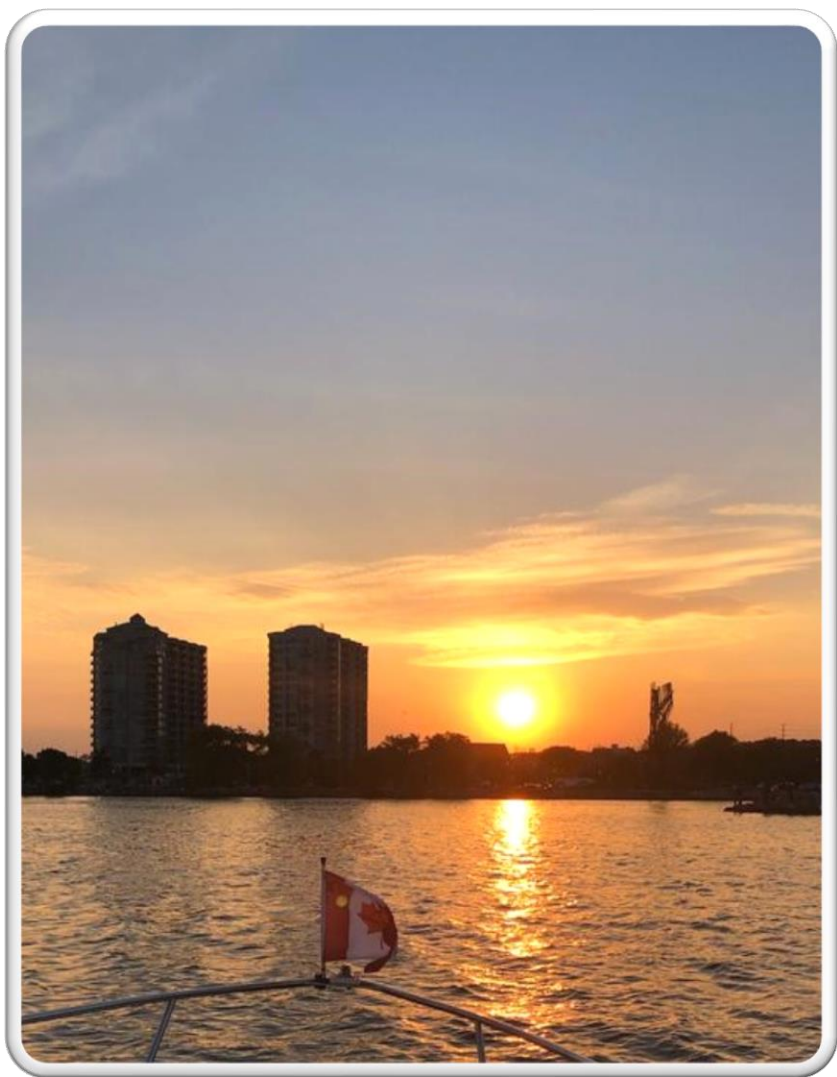

Messenger

*This Messenger of god brings love, smiles and Talent Right now, he most certainly is with Gabriel, Bonzo, Jimi and all the greats
Last night I found him hard to replace Felt like he is gone without a trace
But in the morning, I saw his face
And so, this messenger is still sending messages
This angel of power and grace.*

Trevor William Marais

I said
What you said that she said
What he said
then I read
What you said
What I said
Now my face is all red

Blinded to see his fate
Life of Truth and hope
Life of pain, of God
Through Lord Jesus Christ
Truth will turn to fables

Abiding truth is forever
Hold fast to what is given

Working together means compromising not getting it done on your own terms

Respect everyone not just your own
Justice is the reward for the innocent

Pointing out peoples faults wont make you superior

Rather it will be yours demise
No need to keep explaing, stay calm and quiet

When someone says you have never been there for them means they have never been there for you

Means whatever you've done was menial and was never appreciated.

Dont stop giving, it will never be enough.

Justice will not allways prevail on this side

But garrunteed on the other side

let me remind you

We all need something to make us smile

Something to show us why

Someone to tell us how

We need to be reminded of how the beauty can turn into pain

Most importantly we need to be reminded that life and love is the main reason why

let me remind you to love and respect the beauty it will see you through the pain

A photograph of Glenn Marais, a man with dark hair and a mustache, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and purple tie. He is smiling and singing into a microphone while playing an acoustic guitar. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Glenn Marais

He weeps when he is strong

Welcome to love and understanding

Glenn does see things straight

Ask his students, there's no debate

The gentle sound of his heartbeat to many relate

See what he feels by seeing what he states

Everyday we rise and ponder on our fate

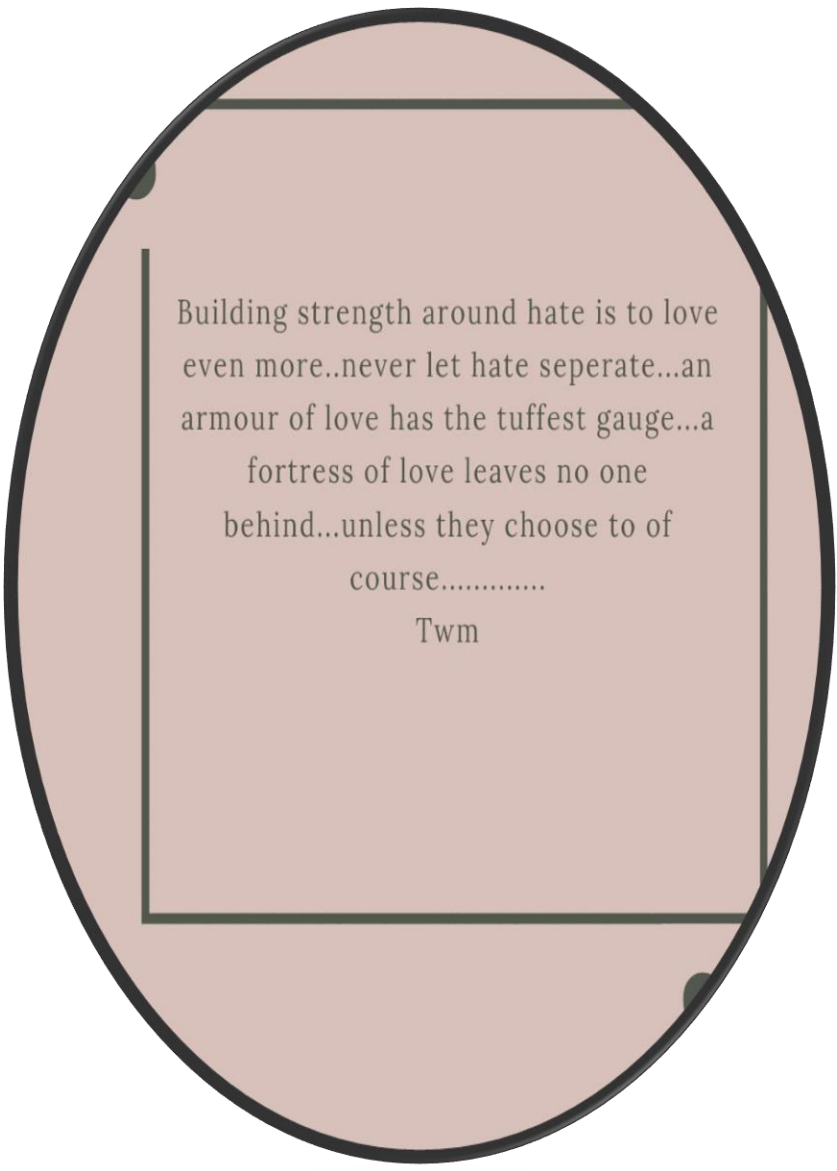

Just look up Glenn, receive and infiltrate

If you think your in pain
Think about Day Zero
when Jesus died

Thorns pressed into his skull nails through both hands
A Spike through both feet
A hole in his side to bleed out left to die a slow death
Hanging on a cross
Excrutiating pain
Can you feel that pain?

For us he shed a tear
That was love
Dont lose sight of it

Patience guides us to a being calm, never overactive, hating or just simply never throwing love away.

Patience leads us to wisdom, teaching, understanding and helps in guiding the young and innocent to better way of seeing their future...their imagination will run wild and free.

Oh!, if only we had seen this sooner

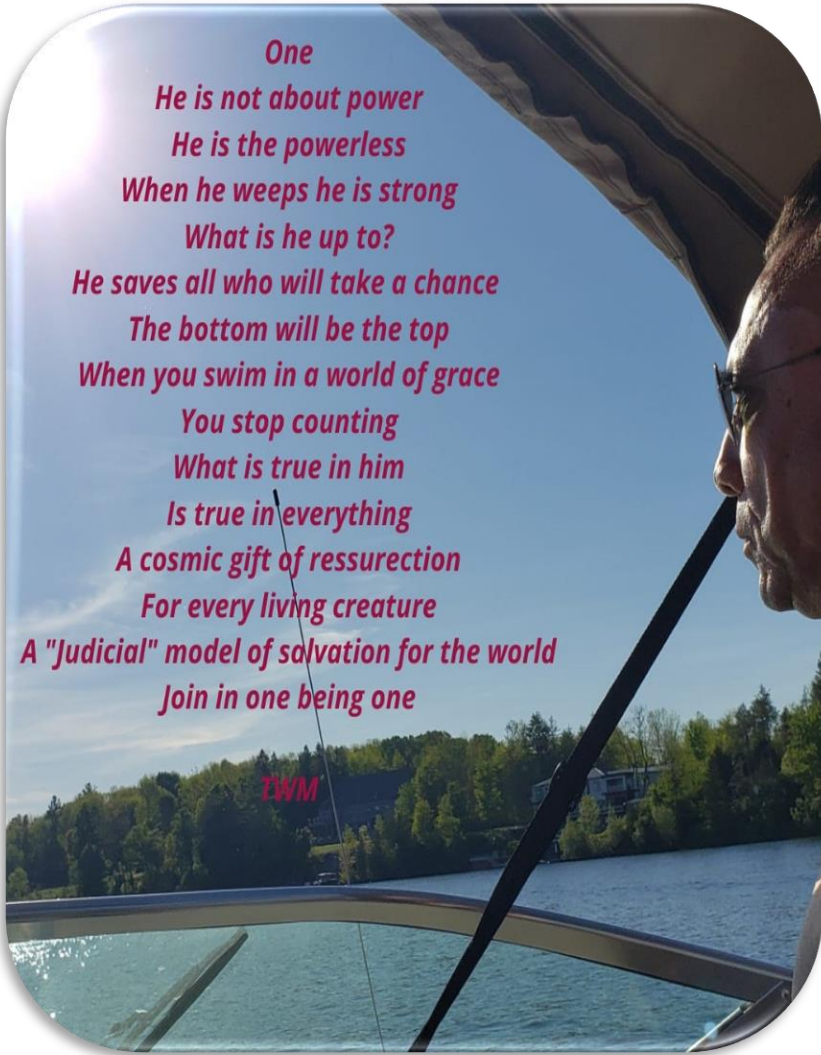

Things would have been a lot better today..

*The question is how Do we follow his words living in such luxury and excitement
So at some point your going to have to make a choice
Understand the unconscious first then feed it Blending yesterday with today Taking the task to be here right now drawing upon yourself to go forward in his name Convert yourself to the bigger picture which we are all one within it.
There will always be the Irony of Humble versus luxury
But it will take humble to get there
The question now is...
How much stimulation will it take to let go of your origins, connection to any any race or creed to become one inside of Jesus Christ and let him live?

Centuries of damage has made it

A photograph of a snowy road winding through a forest at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright orange glow that filters through the bare trees. A yellow diamond-shaped road sign with a black arrow indicating a sharp right turn is visible on the right side of the road. The road is dark and appears to be icy or wet, contrasting with the white snow on the shoulders.

My comfort has no bearing on anything in front of me, my heart and mind is set to absorb your hate and I am ready to suffer and be beheaded or defaced, sacrifice is my comfort for the goodness of us..all that matters is our resurrection in the end.
